ORDER REGARDING CONDUCT OF HEARINGS ON
AUGUST 13 AND 14, 2019

For the hearings on Tuesday, August 13, 2019, at 9:30 AM, the court will call the Senior Unsecured Noteholders' motion to terminate exclusivity first. The moving party and those who have filed in support of the motion and wish to be heard will have a total of thirty minutes for their opening arguments; the Debtors and those who have filed in opposition to the motion and wish to

1 be heard will have a total of forty-five minutes for their 2 arguments; the moving party will have fifteen minutes for 3 rebuttal. The court expects counsel to meet and confer to 4 divide the time allocations as they see fit.

5 After a break the court will hear the Ad Hoc Subrogation
6 Claim Holders' motion to terminate exclusivity, with the same
7 allocations of time among the various parties.

8 Following argument, the two motions will stand submitted,
9 with the expectation that the court will announce its decisions
10 following the August 14 hearings.

11 For the hearings on Wednesday, August 14, 2019, at 9:30 AM,
12 the court will quickly dispose of or continue the Mester motion 13 for relief from stay (Dkt. 3036), the Debtors' Objection to 14 Section 503(b)(9) Claims (Dkt. 2896), and the Omnibus Motion re
15 Community Pipeline Safety Initiative (Dkt. 3176).

16 Next, the court hear the Debtors' motion for establishment
17 of estimation procedures. The Debtors and those who have filed
18 in support of the motion and wish to be heard will have a total 19 of forty-five minutes for their opening arguments; the TCC and 20 those who have filed in opposition to the motion and wish to be 21 heard will have a total of one hour for their arguments; the 22 Debtors will have thirty minutes for rebuttal. The court
23 expects counsel to meet and confer to divide the time
24 allocations as they see fit.

25 Following argument, the court will take a midday break of 26 approximately one hour and will announce the time the afternoon
27 session will begin.

1 For the afternoon hearings, the court will hear the TCC's
2 and the Ad Hoc Subrogation Claim Holders' motions for relief
3 from stay together. The moving parties and those who have filed
4 in support of the motions and wish to be heard will have a total
5 of forty-five minutes for their opening arguments; the Debtors
6 and those who have filed in opposition to the motions and wish
7 to be heard will have a total of one hour for their arguments;
8 the moving parties together will have thirty minutes for 9 rebuttal. The court expects counsel to meet and confer to divide 10 the time allocations as they see fit.

11 For the August 14 hearings, the overflow courtroom
12 (Courtroom 19) WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE. The media center on the 13 first floor will be open for parties wishing to listen to the 14 hearings. Parties not planning to appear and present arguments
15 are encouraged to use CourtCall and monitor the hearings by 16 telephone. Refer to "Request for Telephonic Appearances" at:
